CONTACT: Lorena Saldana, Executive Assistant/Board Clerk (805-961-8853)

SUBJECT: Appointment of the APCD Hearing Board Nominating Committee

RECOMMENDATION:

Select five members of the Board to serve on the APCD Hearing Board Nominating Committee during calendar year 2020.

DISCUSSION:

On February 15, 1996, your Board adopted a resolution to annually establish a standing, five member Hearing Board nominating committee, with a representative from each supervisorial district, which would make nominations for appointment to the APCD Hearing Board. The Final decisions of Hearing Board appointments are made by the Governing Board.

The Hearing Board Nominating Committee will need to meet at least twice during the calendar year to discuss the expiring terms of:

- Terence Dressler, a public member representative. His term is scheduled to expire in June 2020.
- Francis Peters, Jr., a public member representative. His term is scheduled to expire in June 2020.
- Robert Saperstein, the legal member representative. His term is scheduled to expire in October 2020.

Should a Hearing Board member recruitment need to be conducted, this is generally done over the course of 2 meetings; first to give recruitment parameters to the Clerk, and then to conduct interviews. After which time a candidate is brought to the Governing Board for consideration.

At this time, your Board is requested to select the Hearing Board Nominating Committee to serve during calendar year 2020. The previous three years of nominating committees consisted of:
