

RULE 201. PERMITS REQUIRED. (Adopted 10/18/1971, revised 5/1/1972, readopted 10/23/1978, revised 7/2/1979, 4/17/1997, ~~and 6/19/2008~~, and [date of amended rule adoption])

A. Applicability

1. This rule applies to any person who builds, erects, alters, replaces, operates or uses any article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance which may cause the issuance of air contaminants.
2. For the purposes of greenhouse gases, this rule applies to any person who builds, erects, alters, replaces, operates or uses any article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance which has the potential to emit any greenhouse gas or combination of greenhouse gases that exceeds the carbon dioxide equivalent emissions thresholds specified in Title 40, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 52, Section 52.21 (40 CFR 52.21) in effect [date of amended rule adoption].

[...]